Small groups to learn French in a friendly atmosphere. - It's efficient and fun !

8 students maximum per group
*10 in summer

We offer ideal learning conditions: the small groups allow students to participate actively and receive more individual support. The content of the lessons is based on authentic documents and the use of information technology.

Courses for everyone's needs

- In accordance with the Council of Europe, 6 levels of French.

Morning : lessons focus on general French or courses tailored to meet the needs of special groups.

Afternoon : lessons focus on specific aims (speaking, business French, examination courses: TEF, TCF, DELF, DALF ...)

Courses begin every Monday and students' levels are decided on completion of a placement test.
*Courses for complete beginners begin the first Monday of each month.

Our staff - Qualified and enthusiastic.

All our teachers have university qualifications and specialise in the teaching of French as a foreign language. They are also qualified to teach foreign languages, so you can also learn English, German or Spanish: a good opportunity for each student to get both linguistic and cultural knowledge.

Self-study facilities - It's free !

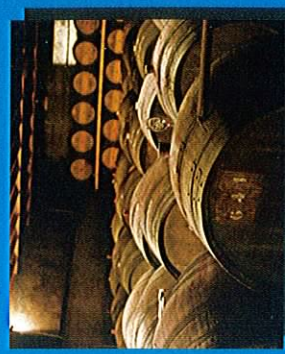

- Language lab
- Internet access
- Library
- Collection of DVDs

Extra services - To make your coming to France easier.

We can arrange your accommodation and pick you up at Tours or Saint-Pierre-des-Corps station. If required, we can organize your transfer from Paris airport to your accommodation in Tours. (Ask the school for prices.)

Excursions in the Loire Valley with teachers !

Tours Langues also organise many cultural and sports activities for their students, including visits to the castles, wine cellars, museums, nearby villages as well as tasting of the local products etc.
